FBDCA AVA AWARD
FOR OUTSTANDING LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT IN SCENT WORK

AKC Scent Work, which began in September of 2017, is a sport that mimics the task of working detection dogs to locate a scent and communicate to the handler that the scent has been found. Teamwork is necessary: when the dog finds the scent, he has to communicate the find to the handler, who calls it out to the judge.

AKC Scent Work is broken down into two divisions. The Odor Search Division, in which the dog is searching for the odor of one or more specific essential oils, and the Handler Discrimination Division, in which the dog is searching for the scent of their handler.

Searches in AKC Scent Work are completed in a variety of environments, known as “Elements.” The Elements in AKC Scent Work are:

- Container: The target odor is concealed within a container (such as a cardboard box or briefcase), and the dog must indicate in which container the scent is hidden.
- Interior: The target odor is concealed on or in an object in an indoor search area.
- Exterior: The target odor is concealed on or in an object in an outdoor search area—this requires the dog to locate the scent despite changing airflow patterns, weather conditions, and natural distractions.
- Buried: The target odor is concealed within a small container and then buried beneath sand or water.

Each element in the Odor Search Division, and the Handler Discrimination Division, has four difficulty levels: Novice, Advanced, Excellent, and Master. Factors such as the size of the search area, the number of hides, whether the number of hides is known or unknown to the handler, and the maximum height of the hides will change with the difficulty level.

The Detective Class is the highest level of competition in AKC Scent Work—it offers an integrated search environment with an unknown number of hides in a variety of elements. The intent of the Detective Class is to emulate as closely as possible the work of a true detection dog. In the Detective Class, the dog is searching for one or more essential oil odors.

In AKC Scent Work, handler-dog teams are judged on a qualify/non-qualify basis. In order to earn a qualifying leg, the handler-dog team must find and call all hides in a search area within the time allowed for the class without committing any non-qualifying faults.

In 2023, one French Bulldog achieved an extraordinary status of attaining 4 AKC Master Level titles in scent work and is currently on her way to attaining the astounding title of Detective Class, which is the highest level of competition in AKC Scent Work.

This remarkable French Bulldog earned her first AKC scent work title in 2019. She competes in four different venues: AKC NACSW, C-WAGS, and CPE Scent Sport. She has earned 53 titles among these venues, 25 of the titles through AKC. She has achieved many firsts in her scent work accomplishments. She is the first French Bulldog to earn the higher level titles (all Master levels), in all four elements.

In honor of Ava, (RACH2 Bullmarket Ava At Spiritdragon CD BN RM9 RAE5 BCAT SWNE SWM SCME SEME SBME THDX RATN TKN ATT), and her handler, FBDCA member Andrea Morden- Moore, the FBDCA has created the Ava Award for Lifetime Achievement in Scent Work. Ava is owned by FBDCA member Andrea Morden-Moore.

Note: The AKC Master title in 4 Scent Work elements will be a requirement for consideration for the Ava Award for Outstanding Lifetime Achievement in Scent Work.
